Truly in a class by itself...The Farm at Taylor Mill is nestled in the rolling hills of Northern Kentucky. This beautiful property was once a prominent dairy farm. It is our goal at The Farm to provide our residents with modern day comforts and amenities without sacrificing the charm and character of this once rural area. Just off I-275, we're close to everything, yet worlds apart from a typical apartment community. You're going to love it here at The Farm at Taylor Mill.
